Bad Wind-Snow Storm New Year's Day Does Slight Damage Here

Highway Equipment Build- ings of R. J. Webb Blown Down—Now Up

The snow and wind storm on New Year's Day did some damage in and around Antioch but not as extensive as it did in other localities.

R. J. Webb, highway superintendent, probably was more aware of the effects of the storm than anyone else in Antioch township.

In the first place, Webb and his men, Al Shepherd and James Runday worked 48 hours straight in opening the roads from the heavy snowfall which cast drifts several feet deep.

They started with the storm at noon on New Year's Day and worked all that night, all Friday, and most of Saturday in clearing the highways in the township. One of the plows broke and it was necessary to go repairs for it. Next a front pulley on an International truck used in removing snow broke and repairs on it were necessary.

Webb said there were a few trees down but it was no great task to shave them aside to open traffic.

"Just as we thought the storm was going to get the best of us, the wind changed and subsided, giving us opportunity to complete the job," Webb said.

Buildings Flattened

The second evidence of Webb's experience with the storm was the flattening of buildings he has been putting up to house the highway equipment. A sheet metal building nearing completion in its use as a temporary shelter, was struck by a strong gust of wind and a side knocked out. This allowed the roof to fall, breaking half of the rafters. A wall of cement of the permanent building under construction was also blown over.

Webb has completed the sheet metal building and expects to complete the permanent building by spring.

The strong wind littered the ground with small limbs and branches from trees. A few telephones were put out of order and power was off in a few instances.

Fox Lake was hit harder than Antioch and Libertyville suffered more than any other village in Lake county. The Milwaukee line was blocked by snow drifts and trains ran many hours late. Libertyville was without utilities for nearly two days.

Lions Club Will Fete Ladies at Annual Party Monday at Hank's Place

The outstanding social event among Antioch organizations will take place Monday evening when the Lions club members entertain their ladies at the annual dinner party.

The meeting will be at Hanks place at Belvidere rd. and Skokie highway and will be the occasion for the installation of new officers.

Luncheon will be served in cabaret style and two strollers, the Melody Mads, will entertain during the dinner.

Harry Krueger, chairman of the program committee, announced that Frank Payne will serve as master of ceremonies and will emcee a floor show with the following attractive entertainment:

The Valentines, harmonica experts; Howard Nichols, hoop juggler; All-white and Blue hand balancing act; Tracy Sisters unusual singing act; and Cleve and Co., comedy musical act.

Afterward the crowd will dance to the tunes of Ralph Sterling and his orchestra, a musical organization that recently played at the Drake hotel in Chicago.

Grand Jury Indicts Four In New Gambling Probe

The Lake County grand jury yesterday returned indictments against four owners and operators of alleged gambling places, the Vernon Country club and the White House near Deerfield.

Indictments were returned against each charging hand book, slot machine operation, gambling and conspiracy. Those indicted were Rocco Fischetti, owner of the gambling house, residing in Chicago; John Kelly, Highland Park, day manager of the Vernon club; August Liebe, Chicago, night manager; and Leo F. Weiss, alias Tom Williams, slot machines owner.

Principal witness summoned by Special Attorney Okel Fuqua was Mrs. Estelle Kahn, 3740 Lake Shore dr., Chicago, who brought suit against the Vernon club managers in 1946 to recover $3,385 which she said she lost across the gaming tables at the club.

She withdrew her suit when the Lake county investigation was started.

Antioch Garage Will Have Open House January 16 In Showing of Ford Truck

The first public showing in Antioch of the new 1948 model Ford trucks will take place Jan. 16 at an "open house" to be conducted by the Antioch garage.

With the streamlined new trucks—the first post-war product of the Ford company—as the main attraction the Antioch garage will welcome the public to its show room on that date from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., where a competent person will gladly explain all of the features of the new bonus built truck.

"We believe this is the most important new truck showing in Ford history," said William Rosing, manager. "We expect to receive trucks during the coming months in quantities increased sufficiently to permit us to meet the heavy demand," he said.

Board Plans for Hearing Of Soo Line Crossing At Chicago Thursday

Plans were made by the village board Tuesday night to have a good representation at the hearing of Antioch's petition before the Illinois Commerce commission at Chicago next Thursday when a grade crossing of the Soo line near Ida ave., will be sought.

Village Attorney George McGaughey asked that as many of the trustees as can go be in attendance. Former trustees who had understandings with the company representatives on the future establishment of a crossing so that the village would have access to its gravel pit and recreation grounds east of the tracks will be asked to go and give their testimony.

There was a crossing at this point a number of years ago but the railroad maintained that because it was not used over a period of five years the village lost the right to have it. The village will show that it must have access to its property to use the pit as a garbage dump and that entrance from any other point on the north or south is prohibitive as to cost or access.

It will be a busy mid-week for the trustees because they will have a meeting the night before in opening bids on the new fire station and must leave Waukegan by 8 a. m. to be present for the hearing at 10 a. m. on the 19th floor of a building at 160 LaSalle st., Chicago.

The board learned that the Soo line put up a crossing warning at Depot st., within the last two weeks fearing that safety measures might enter the hearing.

Barrett Asks Re-election To Post of Att'y General

Attorney General George F. Barrett today announced his candidacy for re-election.

In his statement, announcing his intention to seek renomination in the Republican primary on April 13, the Attorney General pointed to the record of his past seven years in office as chief cause for his decision to run again.

"The legal business of the State of Harold Kanning, 34, and his wife suffered facial and leg injuries Wednesday, Dec. 31, when the car in which they were riding struck the car of Clarence Pass, 25, of Lake Villa at Rte. 21 and E. Center St., Grayslake.

Pass, driving north was said to have attempted a left turn in front of the Kanning car. Pass received facial bruises and chest injuries.

Will Play at Fox Lake

The grade school basketball team after a lapse of several weeks owing to vacation, will resume its schedule next week by playing Fox Lake grade school there on Thursday evening, Richard Whitehead said.

The legal business of the State of Illinois and its people has grown to be of increasingly vital concern to the welfare of the state," he pointed out. "I am honored by and deeply grateful for the fact that the people have entrusted the administration of this work to me. I feel that much effective work and valuable service to the State remains to be done in the next four years, and I am convinced that experienced administration will clearly be needed."

E. K. "Ken" Hart Now President of Lake Villa Bank

Action of the board of directors of the Lake Villa Trust and Savings bank at the annual meeting of the board yesterday has placed E. K. Hart, cashier of the bank for the past fourteen years, at the head of the bank organization as president. Hart has also been a director of the bank for many years.

William Weber, former president of the bank, said that the action was taken because of the steadily increasing pressure of duties of the president, and that it was no longer a part time job. He added that the steady growth of the bank and the community have made it imperative that the presidency of the bank be made a full time job and that the new president would be in active charge of the bank's affairs at all times. Weber was made chairman of the board of directors at the meeting.

Hart will continue to act as cashier of the bank until such time as a suitable man can be secured for the position.

The annual meeting of stockholders was held on Wednesday at 2 p. m. and at this meeting the resignation of Rush E. Hussey, long a director of the bank, was accepted. He was replaced by LaVerne A. Dixon of Gurnee. This was the only change in the board of directors personnel, which now includes William Weber, president of the board; William M. Marks, vice president; Bert Hooper, secretary; E. K. Hart, president and cashier; and LaVerne Dixon.

Howard Waters Taken by Heart Attack Tues.

Howard W. Waters, well known resort operator of the locality, passed away suddenly last Tuesday, January 6, at 10:45 a. m. as a result of a heart attack. The original attack took place at 6 a. m. on the same morning and after treatment by a doctor, he seemed to have been partially recovered, however a second attack later was responsible for his death.

He was born January 7, 1901, at Waukegan, Ill., and had spent his entire life in the locality, having moved to Cross lake 21 years ago, where he operated the Windmill Inn. Shortly afterward he moved to Trevor, where he operated the Shantytown tavern. The business was sold a short time ago.

He is survived by his wife, Josie, a daughter, Mrs. Irene Olson, of Chicago, a son, Edward Madrur of North Chicago, his father, Hosca D. Waters of Milwaukee, and a brother, Clifford W. Waters of Zion.

Funeral services will be held today at the Strang Funeral home with Rev. E. William Strausser in charge. Interment will be in Warren Cemetery.

Elmer E. Eberman, Sr., 87, died Monday, January 5, at the home of his son, E. E. Eberman, Jr., at Chananel lake. He was preceeded in death by his wife, Bessie A. Eberman, four weeks ago.

He was born in Wooster, Ohio, and was a printer by trade.

He had made his home with his son for the past several years. Funeral services will be held today at 203 South Marion street, Oak Park. Burial will be at Woodlawn cemetery, Forest Park, Illinois.

Bids for Construction Of Fire Station to Be Opened Next Wednesday

New Cement Floor to be Laid In Old Station To Bear Weight of Truck

Bids for the construction of the new fire station under modified plans will be opened at 8 p. m. next Wednesday in a special meeting of the village board. President George B. Bartlett said the board expects to have bidders this time.

Until the new building is constructed, the fire department will attempt to house the new truck in the Main st. building. Because the flooring of the present building is too weak to bear the weight of the new truck and the old one, it will be torn out and a new cement one laid.

The report of the committee to the village board last Tuesday evening said that the investigation of a special inspector revealed that it would cost more to bolster the present floor than to put in a new one and the cement floor would be more satisfactory.

If the building were sold for store purposes, a wood flooring could be laid over the cement one, it was said.

March of Dimes Fund Campaign Will Begin Here Next Thursday

Roy I. Kufalk Chairman of Township Drive To Aid Polio Fund

Antioch's March of Dimes campaign will start next Thursday under the direction of Roy I. Kufalk, local postmaster.

Instructions and supplies for the campaign were given out last evening in a meeting at North Chicago attended by city and village chairmen and supervised by County chairman John P. Dromey.

Exceptional interest in the outcome of the attempt to raise $25,000 in the county is being taken this year owing to the great benefit that county patients are receiving.

Last year Lake county spent more than $25,000, using $10,000 of its own money and $15,000 provided by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Eight thousand dollars were spent on one patient this year.

The Lake county chapter is pointing with pride to the fact that the fund afforded the complete cure of Barbara Jean Iles, aged 6, of Waukegan, who was paralyzed from the hips down, and is getting results in the treatment of H. Nilson of the Hawthorn farms at Libertyville who was paralyzed from the hips up. He was fed through tubes in his chest for many weeks at an Evanston hospital, but is now home with only a scar to show for his handicap.

"When you give to the March of Dimes fund you are merely providing insurance for the care of your own child or some other child in your community," Kufalk said in urging Antioch people to contribute. Gifts may be made to Kufalk or to the county headquarters at 1805 Sheridan rd., North Chicago and this community will be given credit.

Oil and More Oil

Can you visualize 85,000,000 gallons of gasoline? That presents an impossible task for most of us. And that is the amount of gas that must be moved each day and every day to supply the United States' trucks, automobiles, busses, and other consumers of this particular type of motor fuel.

Yet that is only the beginning of the oil industry's job. During the first six months of the year, demand for all oil products averaged 5,780,000 barrels a day—which amounts to something like 842,000 tons.

The average consumer sees oil only when the end of the line has been reached—in the service station or in his home fuel tank. Quite naturally, he has little comprehension of the enormous organizing job that brought it to him. All of it began as crude oil in the ground in California or Texas or elsewhere. All of it had to go through a complex series of refinery processes to produce a useable product. All of it had to be transported—by rail, by pipe line, by truck, by ocean tanker. All of it presented problems—some oil products are inflammable, some are explosive, some will deteriorate in handling unless certain precautions are observed. Trained specialists, using costly special equipment, did the job.

But the gas and the diesel oil and the thousand and one other derivatives of crude keep on moving. More will move in the future, as demand increases and new facilities are put to work. One of the most efficient organizations on earth, the American oil industry, is on the job 365 days a year in an effort to bring you the products you want, when you want them, at the lowest price possible under today's conditions.

Where Government Does All The Thinking

The Journal, of Chinook, Montana, recently carried a news story concerning an old-time resident of the town who had just returned home from a visit to relatives in Sweden, whom he had not seen since he emigrated to America 41 years ago. He found much to admire in the nation of his birth. But he found much to criticize, too. To quote the Journal, "All utilities in Sweden are owned and operated by the government, he says, with the same result observed under government management in this or any other country—high cost, limited service, general inefficiency, and the smothering of individual initiative. . . . He would not care to live in a country where the government does all your thinking for you, as they attempt to do over there."

This has a familiar ring. As paternalistic governments go, Sweden's is perhaps the most honest and efficient in the world. But, whether such a government be honorable or corrupt, the end result is pretty much the same. Government-owned enterprise always succumbs to the inertia of a top-heavy bureaucracy. The people can like it or lump it, and it makes little difference to the entrenched officeholders. The resources of the nation are sapped to keep the super-state going, and there is little room for individual enterprise—even as there is little reward for hard work and individual achievement. Incentive dies.

At the end, the Journal says the traveler from Chinook "is a stronger believer than ever in the American way that encourages individual initiative." The paramount duty of all Americans is to keep that way alive and strong.

Something For Nothing

In the words of J. C. Penny, "Socialized medicine is another Utopian scheme to convince the American people they can get something for nothing."

Socialized medicine would be one of the most costly endeavors we could undertake. For instance, the proposed Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill, which would be only the first step toward socialization of the healing arts, would cost a minimum of $4,000,000,000 a year to administer, and might cost in excess of $6,000,000,000—every dime of which would come, directly or indirectly, from the pockets of labor, industry and the general taxpayer.

Even dismissing the financial phase of the matter, socialized medicine would have to be paid for in the coin of political domination of medical care. In time, every doctor, dentist, nurse, hospital, clinic, research center and medical school would feel the power of a gigantic bureaucracy. Political favor, rather than ability, would be the road to advancement. Under these circumstances, a sharp decline in the standards of medical care would be as inevitable as tomorrow morning.

The opposition to socialized or regimented medicine is not based on a negative approach. Positive action is being taken through inclusive, low-cost, voluntary pre-payment plans, of which the largest has 30,000,000 Americans enrolled. These plans are now available to the majority of our people, and in time will be within the reach of all. The voluntary system, coupled with some form of financial aid for the small minority of our people who are really indigent, points the way to better medical care.

HOW TO SAVE HALF THE WINTER FUEL BILL TOLD BY UNIVERSITY

Rising coal and fuel oil prices give added point information released by the Small Homes Council at the University of Illinois telling about home insulation, which can save as much as one-half the winter fuel bill—one shovel of coal from every two.

Fifty per cent is the saving estimate for a typical two-story frame house with wood or shingle siding to which tight storm windows and doors, four inches of insulation between ceiling joist and three and five-eighths inches between wall studding is applied.

The facts about insulation and fuel saving, many resulting from years of careful research at the University, are presented in a free eight page non-technical circular. The high spot in it is a table showing reductions in a fuel bill possible in eight typical types of construction for one-story and two-story homes.

Benefits of insulation, the circular says, include greater comfort by making walls and window surfaces warmer, reducing drafts, and making heat more uniform; cooler houses in summer; and money saved by reducing fuel needs and requiring a smaller heating plant or less load on existing equipment. Also walls and ceilings are cleaner because dust and dirt do not gather on warm surfaces as they do on cold.

Good insulation will not attract insects and mice and will not form fire hazard, will not absorb moisture and get soggy and will not deteriorate or settle, the circular explains.

1948 Food Prospects Outlined by Antioch High School Teacher

C. L. Kutil, Vocational Agriculture Instructor, of the Antioch Township High school, is making some predictions as regards the food situation for 1948.

The more than two billion people of the world's population have never had enough food in the past. This situation is now aggravated by the fact that the production of eight major foods is now lower by 7 percent than before the war while the population has increased by 8 percent.

The 1947 wheat crop of the U. S. was a record high of 1.4 billion bushels, but 400,000,000 bushels of this is being exported.

With average growing conditions in 1948 the wheat crop is expected to be 1 billion bushels. If we continue to export at the same rate, Americans will have less flour than in 1947.

The 1947 corn crop was very short and shorter supplies of beef, veal, pork and lamb are in store for 1948. High prices of wheat has cut down its use as feed for livestock.

Lard Supplies Smaller

Lard supplies will be smaller due to the shortage of corn for fattening. If exports to foreign countries of edible oils, lards and dairy fats continue as in 1947, we will continue having high prices for these products.

Production of fresh and frozen fish will increase if prices stay high as they now are. Canned fish supplies will increase in 1948.

The high prices for feed is expected to reduce the number of chickens and turkeys raised and reduce the number of present layers now on the farms. Egg production will be cut subsequently so that the later part of 1948 will see an egg shortage and higher prices.

More Sugar Available

More sugar will be available to Americans because other countries do not have the cash to pay the Cubans for their crops.

Fruits and vegetables will be plentiful and will be used extensively to alleviate other food shortages.

High prices will continue, due principally to consumer purchasing power, and more pressure to export food to Western European countries and those of the Mediterranean.

One Factor Unknown

One unknown factor remains to trouble all Americans. Russia and her satellites have between 1 and 2 million tons of grain to export this year. All of it is committed to countries that have a leaning toward the Russian sphere of influence. There is only one exception—Denmark received 100,000 tons of Russian grain. France and England would like all they can get and at present trade agreements between Russia and England are under way. Russia and her satellites are planning greater surpluses for export in 1948.

Food is now used as a weapon by both America and Russia to convince wavering nations that their respective governments, democracy or communism are the best for the masses.

Says Kutil, "Food not only won the war but it may yet write the peace."

Lake-Cook Supply Co. To Have Stockholders Meeting on January 14

The Board of Directors of the Lake-Cook Supply announces the twentieth Annual Meeting of the stockholders to be held at the Field House at Arlington Heights on Wednesday, Jan. 14. Owing to the many business details to be taken care of that day all those interested are urged to be there promptly at 10:45 a. m. when the meeting is called to order by E. B. Harris, president of the company.

This meeting will be of unusual interest to all the farmers of Lake and Cook counties as the board of directors in a special meeting held recently reviewed the most successful year that the company had ever experienced and voted to declare dividends amounting to approximately $107,000, which will be paid out that day. Besides this dividend payment, interesting reports covering nearly a million and a half dollar volume which was done, as well as plans for the large expansion which is taking place will be discussed.

The entertainment committee has obtained Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, as the main speaker of the day. Other attractive entertainment will be on the program.

The famous "Lake-Cook Lunch," which has become a standard of free lunches in the territory, will again be served by the company employees. Everyone is urged to attend and everything is free.

Antioch High Will End First Semester Next Week

Antioch High school will complete its first semester next week, with examinations on Thursday and Friday mornings of that week, Prin. T. R. Birkhead announced.

Students who have finished all of their work will be dismissed from classes both afternoons. The examinations will be from 8:30 to 12:30.

Farm Record Books to be Distributed at Three Local Business Places at Cost

The Antioch garage, the First National Bank of Antioch, and the State Bank of Antioch have been selected as distributors of the new Illinois farm record book, Ray T. Nicholas, farm adviser announced.

They were printed by the College of Agriculture and are being sold at cost, 35 cents.

Farmers who attended the record book demonstration meeting at the Farm Bureau Hall in Grayslake recently all agreed that this is the best record book ever provided for farmers for keeping records, he said.

This well organized farm record book provides for a record of receipts, record of expenses, capital accounts and record of depreciation on them, inventories at the beginning and end of year; some records of production, and an analysis of the farm business. The arrangement of the book follows closely that of Internal Revenue form 1040F, so that the records when totalled and summarized, may be readily transferred to Internal Revenue forms.

Mother of Antioch Woman Dies Thursday At Twin Lakes, Wis.

Mrs. Minna Riemann, 77, of Twin Lakes, passed away at her home last Thursday, January 1. She was the mother of Mrs. Marion Paasch of Antioch.

Funeral services were held on Sunday at Peace Evangelical Lutheran church at Wilmot.

She is also survived by four sons, Walter of Round Lake, Fred of Twin Lakes, Paul and George, of Flint, Mich., and five daughters, Mrs. Anna Neuman, of Wilmot, Mrs. Bertha Jahns, of Flint, Mich., Mrs. Dorothy Jahns, of Twin Lakes, Mrs. Elsie Evermann and Mrs. Anna Elverman both of Lily Lake.

Will Read Letter Over Radio
Jack Berch has notified Miss Donna Gelb of Antioch that he will read her letter over the air tomorrow morning from station WMAQ at 10:30 during his program.

Village Board and Lions Club Both Tackle Gar- bage Disposal Problem

Antioch's garbage disposal problem drew attention this week from two different groups in the village.

The village board, seeking to gain access to its gravel pit which would be used as a village dump, took exceptions to the report that it had failed to carry out its contract to cover garbage at the LaPlant grounds south of Rte. 173 east of the village.

Trustees asserted that village employees covered garbage disposed of there but refused to cover that haulled from outlying areas.

It was revealed that despite the fact that Supervisor William Rosing has closed the dump, much garbage has been hauled in from Grayslake, Lake Villa and other points. One trustee said that last week 400 carcasses of ducks were dumped there.

He said that someone has been leaving boxes of garbage at the LaPlant place along the highway regularly but that the person has been clever enough not to leave any contents that would indicate the source.

The garbage problem also has been given attention by the Lions club which is seeing its menace to the whole lake region.

Harry Krueger, chairman of the committee that has the problem under consideration, said the county board of supervisors has been approached on the building of an incinerator to supply this area. He said that aid should come from the county or the state and it is proposed that some government unit build the plant if the club provides the grounds.

"It usually takes a couple of years to get the government action, and we are starting it now," said Krueger, who said that two places now available for the dumping of garbage will be filled in that time.

The garbage disposal problem affects the whole lake region, Krueger said. Vacationers at the lakes often have no place to dispose their garbage.

bage and the result is they dump it on any vacant lot or highway, making a threat to health.

Income Tax Service

Arrangements have been made by Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas with the Internal Revenue Department to have an income tax expert at the Farm Bureau Hall on Monday, Jan. 12, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

All farmers who desire assistance in filling out their income tax forms should plan to come to the Farm Bureau office on the above date. All necessary papers should be brought to same time in filling out forms.

Lake County Holstein Club To Hold Annual Meeting

Members of the Lake County Holstein club will meet at the Farm Bureau Hall in Grayslake Monday evening, January 12, 8:00 p. m., according to Walter Krumery, Secretary of the Association.

The program will include the election of officers and the planning of the year's program. A large number of Holstein Breeders of Lake County are expected to be present.

Sound Destroys Bacteria

The dairy industry has discovered that supersonics passing through milk beat bacteria to death in a few seconds, compared to about half an hour under ordinary methods of pasteurization by heat. Supersonics also can homogenize milk, breaking up the molecules to leave a fluid of easy digestibility. All these developments may be overshadowed by the part that supersonics may play in medicine, according to scientists at University of California who have succeeded in killing the deadly germ Staphylococcus by subjecting it to vibration.

Railroad Mail Volume

Railroads of the United States handle more than 90 per cent of all mail in this country, amounting to nearly seven billion pounds annually.

Fix Loose Bricks

Loose bricks can lead to expensive damage suits. Be sure they are cemented firmly in place.

Far Away Is the Sun

The earth is nearest the sun in January and farthest away in July. In 1947 the date of perihelion (when the earth was closest) was January 3, and the distance separating us was 91,342,000 miles. The time when we are farthest apart, called aphelion, came on July 5, 1947, with the distance of 94,451,000 miles. The reason that it is warmer in July than in January is not due to any close approach of the sun, but to the fact that in the northern hemisphere the sun comes more nearly overhead and its rays of heat and light fall on the ground more nearly vertically and are more concentrated than in the winter.

Pennsylvania Farm Land

According to the 1945 U. S. farm census, the 171,761 Pennsylvania farms contain 15,019,875 acres of land. The total possible cropland is 8,001,335 acres, and land used for crops in 1944 both harvested and fallow, amounted to 6,683,799 acres. Planted pastures totaled 4,240,673 acres, and woodland totaled 3,312,084 acres.

Antioch High Will End First Semester Next Week

Antioch High school will complete its first semester next week, with examinations on Thursday and Friday mornings of that week, Prin. T. R. Birkhead announced.

Students who have finished all of their work will be dismissed from classes both afternoons. The examinations will be from 8:30 to 12:30.

Hangs by Hands 86 Floors
Up, Rescued by Guards

NEW YORK. — A man was snatched to safety recently as he hung by his hands from the 86th floor parapet of the Empire State building, 1,050 feet above the street.

Police identified him as Peter McPartland, 25, of Brooklyn. They said two guards seized him by the wrists and dragged him to safety after he clambered over the four-foot parapet of the observation platform.

He struggled to swing free into space and four guards were required to drag him into an elevator, police said. He told guards he had decided to jump from the world's tallest building when he found his stockroom job overtaxed his weak heart.

Missing Girl Tricked
Out of Hiding Place*Sight of Her Boy Friend's Scooter Lures Daughter Into Open.

LANARK, ILL. — A 14-year-old daughter of a minister, missing for several days, was tricked out of hiding by the sight of her boy friend's red motor scooter.

Sheriff Henry Gruninger said the girl, Wilberta Paul, ran after the scooter as it was being driven through Lanark streets, caught up with it, then cried with dismay, "Where's Duane?" as she saw that the driver was her friend's father, John Kloeppling.

Duane Kloeppling, 16, meanwhile, had been charged by Carroll county authorities with contributing to the delinquency of a minor after admitting the sheriff said, that he helped Wilberta run away.

The elder Kloeppling agreed to take part in the ruse to bring the girl out of hiding, Gruninger said. "I just had the urge to run away," Gruninger quoted her as saying.

Appearing somewhat weak, she hungrily went after some food in the sheriff's office in nearby Mount Carroll, saying she hadn't eaten anything for two days.

The girl told the sheriff she hid in farm fields near Lanark. She spent one night in a quarry and stayed for a while in a cemetery.

Wilberta first was reported missing by her father, the Rev. I. Clifford Paul, pastor of the Church of Brethren here. Young Kloeppling was questioned after his leather jacket and the girl's coat were found in a haystack.

The girl's parents told the sheriff they were not "angry" with the girl but glad to have her home with them again.

Texas War Veteran Recalls Time He Chased MacArthur

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. — Not many men can boast that they ever chased Gen. Douglas MacArthur anywhere. Ed Armstrong Sr., 82-year-old veteran of two major wars and the Philippine insurrection, is the exception.

He chased MacArthur off the parade field in the Philippines.

"It was this way," the former soldier explained. "I was major in the 30th infantry under the late Maj. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, father of the now famous commander of allied occupation forces in Japan."

"That was in 1899, and Doug Jr. was a mischievous 16-year-old boy. He had the same squint in his eyes that he has today. He wore his cap at the same jaunty angle. Then, as now, he wore his shirt open at the throat."

Armstrong remembers MacArthur as an "unforgettable youngster." He was full of pep and ginner and curious about anything that was military," he recalled.

He added that it probably was the curiosity of young Doug that caused him to get too close to the reviewing troops. "It was my duty to chase him off the field," Armstrong said.

Air Ace Dies to Save Lives,
Stays on Job to Clear Houses

SEARS, ILL. — A World War II ace went down to death with his falling plane rather than let it ram homes in this little village.

Maj. Kenneth G. Smith, 33, of Boise, Ida., who downed six German planes in the war, was killed when his Thunderbolt crashed in a stream bed, exploded and burned.

Witnesses said Smith stayed at the controls until the fighter was clear of any buildings. He was out on a wing, ready but too late to parachute, when the craft hit.

He was a squadron commander at Dow field, Bangor. Officials said his ship went into a flat spin at 10,000 to 12,000 feet from undetermined cause.

Minister Wins 'Tall Tales'*Contest With Drought Yarn

HURON, S. D. — The Rev. Charles D. Bullock, Methodist minister at Sioux Falls, S. D., has won the annual sportsmen's "liar contest" sponsored by the Huron chamber of commerce. His story:

"My father homesteaded in Beadle County in 1885, the days of real droughts. That summer we found ourselves without even enough water to drink. So my father simply pulled up the old farm well and ran it through a wringer to get some water to give to my baby sister."

Bandit Shot in Church by Cop,
Rector Held Up*Holds Minister as Hostage
Under Threat of Death
As Police Close In.

FINDLAY, OHIO. — A rookie state patrol rifleman shot down a fugitive gunman in Trinity Episcopal church after he had held the rector as hostage for an hour.

The gunman, pressing a pistol against the minister's head, had warned police who closed in about the church:

"I'll kill him if you try and capture me."

Patrolman R. C. Vanderveen crept into the church in his stocking feet while the Rev. John Evans Know argued with the gunman at the baptismal font.

In the church vestibule was Police Chief Leo J. Harkins, "preaching the best sermon of my life," and pleading with the fugitive:

"Boy, you haven't done anything too serious. Come out now, and don't hurt this man of God who has been near death several times recently."

"Yah! yah!" the gunman snarled. "You haven't got much on me. Just carrying concealed weapons, stealing a car and so forth."

Suddenly the gunman's attention was distracted.

Patrolman Vanderveen, fearful of hitting the minister, missed with his first shot. Mr. Knox grappled with the gunman, but he broke away. The patrolman fired again and the gunman dropped near the church door.

Had Criminal Record.

He was identified as Leonard Johnson, 29, of Detroit, who had served three terms in the Michigan reformatory.

At one time while he was holding Mr. Knox prisoner, the gunman decided to light a cigarette.

"You can't smoke in here," Mr. Knox cried. "We never allow anyone to smoke in the church."

The gunman put his cigarette away.

The 34-year-old rector, who has been seriously ill since returning from duty as a naval chaplain, received a black eye and hand cut while battling the intruder.

Johnson and a companion, Lindell Brown, 29, of Granville, Ky., had been arrested on suspicion of automobile theft earlier. While they were being searched at the station, Johnson drew a gun and shouted: "I'm getting out of here."

He sprinted into a crowd of noon-day shoppers in the downtown section and entered the church. Police pursuers stopped suddenly when Johnson appeared at the church door with a gun pressed to Mr. Knox's head.

Reactor Not Scared.

After shouting his threat, the gunman forced the minister into the church.

"I wasn't scared, really I wasn't," Mr. Knox told newsmen after he was rescued.

"I tried to argue with the man, but he wouldn't listen," Police Chief Harkins talked to him, too, through the window.

"The man told me he wouldn't give himself up because he was wanted in another state. Finally he told the chief and me he wanted us to get him a car and that I would accompany him until he was out of the city."

"After the chief said, 'The car is ready now' we left the baptismal font and walked toward the front door. That was when Patrolman Vanderveen fired the first time."

"The man hadn't harmed me up to then, but after the shot missed, he began brandishing that gun and saying he was going to kill me."

"I jumped him and we rolled on the floor. I don't know just what happened; but suddenly the man gained his feet and the patrolman fired again, hitting him this time."

Mr. Knox, a former newspaperman, has been pastor of the Trinity church about seven years, including his war service.

Air-Minded Pair Married
In Plane Two Miles in Sky

CROWN POINT, IND. — An air-minded Hoosier and his bride from Detroit were principals in an unusual wedding ceremony performed 10,000 feet above Crown Point, Ind., in an airplane.

The wedding took place in a four-passenger cabin plane purchased by H. Radway Matz Jr., 40, and his wife, Nelmary Mordue, 37, of Detroit.

Justice of the Peace Harvey T. Miras of Crown Point presided, while George Priester, 30, of Oak Park, Ill., piloted the plane.

Matz, a retired printing company executive, said the reason for the high-flying wedding was a "liking for airplanes."

Insistent Resident Really Wants His Street Fixed

CHEEKTOWAGA, N. Y. — Town board members are convinced that Walter Pietrzak wants a lot of fixing.

"I want my street fixed," Pietrzak wrote. "It is a lousy street. I want a sign on it, too. That street is really bad. Fix it because it needs fixing. You must fix it. Fix it. Please fix it. It needs it very bad."

SHORT STORY*The Other Woman

By MARION BOUCHER

WHEN the alarm rang at seven in the grey morning, Henry reached out quickly and shut it off before it wakened Isabel. Quietly, Henry got up and groped his way to the bathroom.

It was the usual beginning of his day but on this particular morning he felt a little rebellious. He thought of Isabel, still lying asleep, her dark hair spread out on the pillow, her red mouth curved in a half smile. When they were first married she used to get up and prepare breakfast for him. Now that the children were old enough to fend for themselves he had to make his own coffee and toast as best he could before hurrying down to the store.

He couldn't say just when it had happened but sometime during the 10 years of their married life, Isabel had changed from a devoted young bride to a spoiled wife who took her husband very much for granted. It was probably just as much his fault as hers; he was so mild and easy-going that it seemed natural for people to impose on him. Even at his own table, the children seemed in the department store where Henry worked as a window dresser. He had been married a good many years but his wife always was fussing over him. Henry thought of Morley a little enviously and wondered if he dared ask him the secret of his marital bliss.

The opportunity presented itself that very day when they happened to be lunching together. A little timidly, Henry broached the subject: "Er . . . uh . . . I've noticed how your wife always makes a fuss over you, Morley. How do you do it—hold her interest, I mean?"

"Oh, I keep her guessing. You know, let her feel that you still find other women attractive. That's the way to treat 'em, Henry, old man."

AT SUPPER that night he started his campaign. Isabel was talking about a new way she wanted to have her hair done.

"I think that's the way Linda wears her hair and it certainly looks smart," Henry commented.

Isabel looked up in surprise. "Linda? Who is she?"

"One of the girls at the store—very attractive. She always wears the smartest clothes."

"Really, Henry, I didn't know you were so observant." Isabel was a little piqued but she looked at her husband with new interest.

After that hardly a day went by that Henry did not mention Linda and his casual remarks were not lost on Isabel. Though she would not have admitted it, she was a little jealous and more than a little curious. Never before had her husband appeared interested in another woman.

So she sat up and took notice of her sleek husband as she hadn't done for years. She put herself out to be amusing and helpful. When he came home at night there was always a good dinner, with his favorite dishes carefully prepared.

Even at the table, the children seemed in league against him.

He was busy changing a display that afternoon when he looked up to see Isabel coming down the aisle.

Isabel chattered away for a while and finally asked, "By the way, is that girl, Linda, around? You've been talking so much about her lately that I'd like to meet my glamorous rival."

Henry flushed guiltily. "Matter of fact she isn't here today," he stammered. "She has a cold and couldn't come to work."

"Oh . . . that's too bad," Isabel sounded genuinely disappointed. "Will you be home early, Henry? I was able to get a steak for dinner."

Henry looked after her departing figure and breathed a sigh of relief.

He had got out of that situation neatly, he congratulated himself, but he hoped Isabel wouldn't come and ask for Linda again.

Henry flushed guiltily.

"Matter of fact she isn't here today," he stammered. "She has a cold and couldn't come to work."

"Oh . . . that's too bad," Isabel sounded genuinely disappointed. "Will you be home early, Henry? I was able to get a steak for dinner."
